PLAYERS NOTE

All the Registered players of BAI are advised to follow the guidelines as noted below with immediate effect.

- Players are advised to participate in BAI sanctioned tournaments in India as per the BAI calendar.
- Same as above, at the state level, the players are permitted to participate in sanctioned tournaments of respective State / Member Associations which are affiliated to BAI.
- Any players participated in unrecognized tournaments / League matches at National / State level are bound for disciplinary action.
- It is responsibility of the players to confirm from the host organizers regarding recognition / affiliation either from BAI or concerned State Association. (grant of permission)
- Disciplinary action will be taken against the players, if participated in unrecognized private tournaments at any level.
- Players are not permitted to participate in other State tournaments, unless it is a recognized tournament or grant of permission by the concerned State Association wherever He/She registered.
- Any player failing to participate in any BAI approved tournaments after draw is made, he/she is liable to pay Rs:1000/- (one thousand) fine to BAI before participating in next tournament, failing which they will not be permitted to participate in the further tournaments
- For any other details or clarifications, please contact the respective State Associations.
